EXHIBIT VENUE

The Crescent City Brewhouse is one of New Orleans' premier restaurants and the only French Quarter microbrewery. It is located in a legendary two story building that was included in the earliest city plan of 1722. The great fire of 1794 burned the building to the ground. After being rebuilt, it was the home of many New Orleans families until 1916, when it was used for fur processing. In 1991, the Crescent City Brewhouse opened on the site. The design of the restaurant has been recognized and awarded the Vieux Carre Council Award for maintaining the historic property and an outstanding renovation.
