Although not a "signature," which can be signed on paintings, artists who receive the Eminent Pastelist designation may use the letters "IAPS/EP" on resumes, websites, brochures, magazine articles and other promotional media to indicate their membership as an IAPS Eminent Pastelist. You may start using this designation upon receipt of this letter. Each recipient of the Eminent Pastelist award receives a gold pin with a ruby. William A. Schneider's pastel painting "My Wild Irish Rose" received the "Best Pastel" award in the 2021 Plein Air Salon in May. The monthly winners become finalists in the competition for the Annual Salon (top award - $15,000). The Juror of Awards was Jane Bell Meyer, Owner of the prestigious Illume Gallery in St. George, UT. His pastel painting "Wildling Warrior" received the 2nd Place Award at the 27th Biennial National Juried Exhibition sponsored by the Art League of Hilton Head. 100 artists from 28 states were accepted from over 700 entries. The juror of awards was Master Pastel and oil Painter, Marc Hanson. The show exhibited at the A. L Gallery on Hilton Head Island. His pastel painting, "Jodie in Blue" was awarded an Honorable Mention in the 17th Annual Mile High Exhibition sponsored by the Pastel Society of Colorado. The show ran through 7/26/21 at the Curtis Center for the Arts, in Greenwood Village, CO. The Juror of Awards was Master Pastelist, Alain J. Picard who said in presenting the award: "In this sensitive portrait of a woman, soft edges are the means of expressing tenderness, along with warm, luminous colors of skin. Tonal passages create a rich mood, and the suggestion of the woman's hand reveals not only the grace of the sitter, but the skill of the artist."
